NEWSPAPER DAY

ORIGINATOR OF UNIQUE IDEA MAKES COMMENT ON SUBJECT

Thomas J. Hayes of San Diego was the originator of the idea of an annual "Newspaper Day" for California. Mr. Hayes has the following to say on the subject:

"The next few years," said Mr. Hayes today, "are going to witness the greatest activity in California ever known on the Pacific coast. The Panama canal is completed and the man on the Pacific is today facing the front of the world.

"People in the East will be especially interested in the special edition of our newspaper October 1st, for the reason they will want to know what view the people on the Pacific coast take of the changed condition of the map.

"The papers published on October 1st in California will enlighten them on this subject. So let me urge again that every inhabitant in the state of California on October 1, 1914, mail a copy of the paper published in his locality to some friend or acquaintance in some part of the world outside of California.

"This movement has been endorsed by the California Development Board of San Francisco, an organization equally interested in the development of every county in the state. It has been endorsed by the boards of supervisors, the chambers of commerce, the federation of state societies and other progressive organizations in almost every locality in the state. More than ten million will receive information about California from newspapers that will be mailed out of this state October 1st.

"I have received inquiries from prominent newspapers in the East for information concerning our "Newspaper Day," and prominent newspapers in the East have published on their own motion accounts of it. The California state-wide "Newspaper Day" will attract the attention of the civilized world, for there is not to be found a more brainy class of editorial writers anywhere. We can rest assured they will do their part; let us do ours.

"The whole world is casting longing eyes toward the Pacific coast, and thousands of those coming here in 1915 will be in search of homes. They will want land and they will investigate every county in the state in search of it. Most of these people will be well-to-do; they are tired of living in the wind and heat and cold —on the battleground of all the elements—and they will come to California for the joy of living in this land of fruit and flowers, of sunshine and delight.

"The splendid newspapers of this state, with their talented editors, at the request of nearly all the prominent organizations in the state, have agreed to set forth all the facts about California in special editions on "Newspaper Day," Ortober 1, 1914, and it is to be hoped that no one will neglect to take advantage of this splendid opportunity.

"The newspapers are the advance agents of every modern enterprise. We owe it largely to them that people coming to this coast no longer make the long and tedious ocean voyage in some crude craft, suffering with fever and rocked and tossed by the treacherous waves and inconsistent winds. They come in a floating palace. Things have changed since Dana wrote his 'Two Years Before the Mast.' This is not the age of Enoch Arden.

"Let us not forget to send our friends a newspaper on October 1. 1914, that will enlighten them regarding the Front of the World."

MAN FOUND DEAD

Wm. Eichmueller of 811 Lomita avenue, night watchman of the Usona Film Company, was found dead this morning at 6 o'clock on the street at Sixth and Everett. From all appearances he had sat down on the curb and then fell over on his face.

Police officers notified the coroner and the body was removed to the Pulliam Undertaking Company's rooms.

Mr. Eichmueller was a man past middle age. It is not known whether or not he has any relatives. A letter found in his pocket addressed to him contained the name, Gertrude Gilmore, 242 West Sixtieth street, Los Angeles, on the reverse of the envelope.

Mrs. Helen Woodruff Boyd of 1463 Ivy street was among the guests entertained at luncheon by Mrs. G. Shivers of Los Angeles.

Mr. T. S. Provolt of 608 North Central avenue, Tropico, left Sunday night for Bakersfield, where he has large ranch interests.

SPLENDID FEATURE PICTURE AT GLENDALE THEATER

The management of the Glendale theater has secured one of the most exciting and thrilling photo-plays, viz., "Won in the Clouds," for Wednesday and Thursday of this week. This play is in three reels and the plot is laid in Africa, where some travelers discover a diamond mine, and after removing many precious stones are prevented by the natives from leaving the country. The natives apply the torch to the residence of the diamond kings, as such they now are, who escape only to realize that they have forgotten the key to the hiding place of the diamonds.

The daughter of the family, after much difficulty, sends her trained Arabian horse into the burning place to rescue the key, which is finally done. But their troubles are now only begun, for the natives drive wild animals, including elephants, lions, etc., upon them. Just as the beasts and natives close in on them, a large twelve-passenger dirigible balloon comes along and opens fire on them and rescues our white party.

This picture was really taken in Griffith park and vicinity, and the large dirigible is Knabenshue's twelve-passenger machine. In taking this picture Knabenshue passed over Glendale and attracted the attention of many, who "shot" him with kodaks. This picture should pull good crowds, as it is a topnotcher. The rest of the program is composed of two reels of excellent pictures, including good comedy.

Tonight is "Country Store Night" and should attract the usual good crowd, as the groceries and goods given away appeal to all. The program includes "The Animated Weekly" of current events; "The Awakening," "The Mask of Affliction," and a two-reel heart-touching and interesting drama, "Kids," wherein some youngsters get lost in a rowboat in San Pedro harbor and are the result of the calling out of the lifesavers, police boats and tugs, and furnishes lost of fun.

California "dry." Presbyterian church. When? Wednesday evening, Sept. 30, 7:30 o'clock. Speaker from Long Beach, Miss Alice Moore, who was formerly teacher in Occidental college. Music by the orchestra and Baraca class.

A DETRIMENT TO ALL

CONSOLIDATION WILL NEITHER BENEFIT THE LARGE NOR SMALL CITIES

It would seem that the people of Los Angeles are beginning to awaken to the dangers they are bringing upon their own city in advocating either one of the proposed consolidation amendments, says the Pasadena Daily News. Senator Lee C. Gates, N. W. Thompson and W. J. Carr have been investigating these amendments with the greatest care and they are unanimously of the opinion that either one of them would work great harm and result in seriously crippling the future Los Angeles. The Times of Friday gives considerable space to their findings and it is hoped this may be taken as an indication of a decided change in sentiment on the part of that journal.

The members of the committee in question point out the very significant fact that the movement has its origin in the desire of San Francisco to take in San Mateo county. This would add very materially to the size and importance of that city. On the other hand the adoption of the consolidation plan by Los Angeles would result in the reduction of the size of the county bearing that name. Los Angeles has been widely advertised as the most populous and richest county west of Cook county Ills., and this advertisement has had an undoubted influence in her wonderful growth of recent years. The committee showed to the people of their city that it would be the height of folly to give up this hard-won supremacy without receiving anything in return save the privilege of holding second place.

Another point upon which the committee places great emphasis is the limitations which the adoption of this policy would always place upon the new county. After the consolidation is once effected the county limits will be the city limits as well, and thereafter it will be very difficult to expand in any direction. Much of the past growth of the city has been due to taking in populous and valuable adjacent territory and the loss of this opportunity would soon prove to be a very serious handicap.

So far as the argument regarding economy of administration in public affairs is concerned, the committee shows that steps have already been taken under existing laws to consolidate the offices of city assessor and city tax collector with the similar county offices. The same can be done with other dual offices and practically all of the economies of the consolidation amendments can be secured in this way without any of the disadvantages.

These gentlemen seem to have left the consolidationists without a single argumentative leg to stand upon. All the benefits to be derived from the adoption of either of the amendments can be secured much more easily and cheaply under present laws, with the addition of some slight changes. In addition are the vital facts that the adoption of this policy will inevitably force Los Angeles into second place and would so cripple her powers of expansion as to make it forever impossible for her to regain her present supremacy. Under the circumstances the only wise thing for the people of Los Angeles to do is to join with the rest of the county in voting down both amendments. They are almost identical in substance and will be found as numbers 19 and 21 on the official ballot. Be sure to vote "No" on both.

COMMUNITY PRIDE

The people of this community are agitating very enthusiastically the spirit of community pride. The Glendale community comprises the territory in the eastern part of the San Fernando valley. The people of this territory have learned that it is for their mutual benefit to co-operate on all questions that tend for the betterment of the community.

Merchants, professional men, clubs, churches and all organizations are recognizing the importance of community co-operation. It aids in increasing the value of property and in every respect makes a more desirable community in which to live. "Try our own community merchants first" is the slogan.

HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON AND THEATER

Mrs. Luther G. Brown of 128 North Louise street was hostess Saturday at a prettily appointed luncheon at the Jonathan Club, Los Angeles, followed by a theater party at the Orpheum, the affair having been given in compliment to Mrs. Ruth Head of 124 North Louise street. Other Glendale guests were Mrs. Frank Richardson and Miss Laurine McDonald.

LATE TROPICO ITEMS

SOCIETY AND CLUB NOTES FROM SISTER CITY TO THE SOUTH

Mrs. Helen De Gaston, president of the Tropico branch of the Parent-Teacher Association, announces the first meeting of this organization at the Cerritos school building, located on Cerritos avenue between Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue. A special business session will be held at 3:15 p. m. From 4 o'clock until 4:30 Mrs. Estella Lindsey (Miss Cynthia Grey), formerly of the Los Angeles Record, will give a talk on several of the most important of the amendments that will be presented to the voters at the November election. A cordial invitation is extended not only the parents of the pupils, but to the citizens of Tropico.

A delicious luncheon served in the grape arbor was one of the features of the charming day when Mrs. Anna L. Smith entertained a coterie of friends at her home, "Quinta Ana," on Riverdale drive, Sunday. Bunches of luscious Concord grapes, with their green tendrils and leaves forming the gorgeous autumn tints, hung through the trellis, and with their deep purple colorings tempted the merry party. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Smith were Mrs. Helen Carter, Miss Hazel Carter and Miss Lillian Reinport of Los Angeles; Mrs. Lenora Miller, Miss Marcella Miller and Mrs. Reuben Z. Imler of Glendale.

The lyric section of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, 207 Blanche avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper of the Cooper School of Music and the noted dramatic soprano, is musical director of the lyric section, while Mrs. Percy De Gaston of Glendale avenue is the accompaniste.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Merrill and their daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Merrill, have returned from a month's delightful visit as the guests of Mr. Merrill's father, Judge C. M. Merrill, of St. John, Mich.

YOU SHOULD SEND ONE EAST

Copies of the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News will soon be sent broadcast over the United States. Its fame has already gone abroad and in addition to those here in Glendale who are ordering the paper sent to friends in the East, we are receiving orders by mail. A letter received Monday from Detroit, Mich., requested four copies of the special issue sent there.

TO STUDY AMENDMENTS

At the First Congregational church tomorrow evening the usual prayer meeting time will be devoted to a consideration of a number of important amendments which are to be voted upon at the November election.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mr. Frederick Baker and the Rev. E. H. Willisford are among the speakers to be heard and an interesting and profitable service is assured.

The general public is invited to attend this meeting, which will afford a splendid opportunity to learn how to vote intelligently.

This meeting will be opened at 7:45 p. m. and will last one hour.

NOTICE!

It is requested that all the young ladies who are to take part in the "American Girls" be at La Ramada at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon instead of Friday evening.

FIESTA BITS

The costumes to be worn in the "Spanish Romance" will really be gorgeous and the little "Poppy Girls" are delightful beyond measure.

The two beautiful singers, Mrs. Frank Arnold, contralto, and Mrs. William Herman West, soprano, add much to the opening and finale of the play with especially selected and appropriate songs.

DEATH AND FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT

John E. Booth, aged 72 years, and one of the oldest settlers of Glendale, passed away Sunday, September 27th, in his home at Florence Park. The deceased leaves to mourn, a widow, Mrs. Lydia Booth; a son, John L. Booth, and two daughters, Mrs. C. J. Newcomb and Miss Edith Booth, the former being a resident of Glendale.

The funeral was held today at 2:30 p. m. from the funeral parlors of W. A. Brown, 1047 South Figueroa street, Los Angeles. Interment Inglewood Park cemetery.

WILLISFORDS ARE HOSTS

LARGE RECEPTIONS AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH FOR PARISHIONERS

Monday of this week boasts of the occurrence of two notable events at the Congregational church of Glendale, the Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford having delightfully received their parishioners at large receptions given in the afternoon and evening of that day.

Both were most enjoyable affairs and were marked with distinction in as much as the afternoon hours were given over to members of the fair sex, while the doors were opened in the evening to men only.

The following program was arranged for the entertainment of the ladies:

Piano solo, Miss Ruby Dale.

Soprano solo, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke.

Reading, Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan.

Vocal solo, Miss Louise Armstrong.

"Just Talk," the Rev. E. H. Willisford.

Each number was well received and generously responded to with hearty encores.

The decorations were most profuse, pink roses and fern having been combined with dainty blue blossoms, potted plants and trailing vines.

Mrs. F. H. Everly and Miss Calla Porter were in charge and succeeded in converting the church parlors into a tea garden of beauty and fragrance.

Over one hundred ladies were received by the host and hostess, who were assisted in line by Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. A. Lucas Smith, Mrs. M. J. Miner, Mrs. B. Franklin, Mrs. H. W. Yarick, Mrs. W. D. MacRae, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. W. W. Brown, Mrs. W. L. Patterson, Miss Calla Porter, Mrs. W. S. Alvord, Mrs. Wm. Nash, Mrs. E. C. Galey, Mrs. A. S. Chase, Mrs. Thos. Atkinson, Mrs. Hudson, Miss Button, Miss Frazer, Mrs. R. Head and Mrs. E. O. Von Oven.

The guests were served to iced tea and wafers by Mrs. Goodridge, Mrs. E. A. Svenson, Mrs. L. L. Frazee, Miss Marion Lane and Miss Eulalie Tucker.

About fifty men responded to the evening invitation and more than entered into the social spirit which prevailed.

Mr. Scovell, a well-known Los Angeles dramatic reader, was heartily received in his Shakespearean and humorous readings and likewise may be said of Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, who never fails to please, and who, together with Mrs. Willisford, were the only ladies present. Mrs. Sloan accompanied the male quartet, composed of Mr. Blake Franklin, Mr. R. W. Beers, Mr. Lewis Abell and Mr. H. W. Yarick, who appeared a number of times at their best.

Hot coffee and wafers were served at the close of the program and were poured and served by Mr. D. A. Lane, Mr. E. E. Schuyler, Mr. C. H. Challis and Mr. C. M. Van Dyke.

Standing with the Rev. and Mrs. Willisford were Mr. Geo. E. Adams, Mr. E. D. Yard, Mr. Goodridge, Rev. H. M. Goodwin, Rev. Wm. Sloan, Mr. E. O. Von Oven, Mr. W. D. MacRae and Clarence Galey.

ST. MARGARET GIRLS MEET

A special meeting of the St. Margaret Girls was held Monday evening in the home of the Misses Bessie, Mattie Belle and Clara Provolt, 806 North Central avenue, Tropico, where besides the regular short business session, during which a dancing party and other informal social festivities were discussed for the month of October, an hour of cards and refreshments were greatly enjoyed.
